

About BONHEUR

The four-piece Stuttgart-based band exists since 2016. As Into The Fray we released two EPs and played over 100 concerts in the GSA region, including Jazz Open in Stuttgart, Musik & Frieden in Berlin and Nochtwache in Hamburg. We had about 180,000 listeners, 600,000 streams and were featured in Spotify's Wintergefühle and Kaffeehausmusik playlists, among others.

Since then, our songwriting, content, and band sound have changed significantly. That's why we are releasing our debut album "sometimes it hurts, but that's okay" as BONHEUR in 2024. The production of the album took place at Toolhouse Studios and was supported by the state of Baden-Württemberg. Starting in the fall of 2023, we plan to release six singles, including ANOTHER DIRTBAG' as a focus single.

About ANOTHER DIRTBAG

On 11/24/2023 we will be releasing our debut single ANOTHER DIRTBAG.

ANOTHER DIRTBAG is questioning our performance and elbow society critically, a society where the topic of Mental Health is still a taboo subject. If the term Mental Health does come up, then the topic is largely commercialized, dismissed as hip and instrumentalized solely for marketing purposes. We don't want to wag our finger and pretend that we know best how to deal with it - ANOTHER DIRTBAG should encourage the listeners to deal with the topic, accept themselves and to communicate with each other.
